

Certification of a Required HUD Briefing

Federal Regulations 982.301(A)(1) states that when the PHA selects a family to participate in a tenant- based program, the PHA must give the family an oral briefing. The briefing must include information on how the program works, family and owner responsibilities, where the family may lease a unit, including renting a dwelling unit inside and outside the PHA jurisdiction, and any information on selecting a unit that HUD provides. Section (2) An explanation of how portability works. (3) advantages of areas that do not have a high concentration of low-income families (4) briefing a family that includes any disabled person, the PHA must take appropriate steps to ensure effective communication in accordance with 24 CFR 8.

HUD requires that an applicant who is determined to be eligible for housing assistance must complete a full briefing and this form certifies that you and all adult members whom will reside in the assisted unit have viewed and understand the oral presentation provided to you by the Housing Authority through the You Tube link sent directly to you.

Certify below and return to the Housing Authority.

I , certify that I and all adult members whom will reside in the assisted unit have watched the Housing Choice Voucher Briefing, Fair Housing and Housekeeping videos required by HUD.
